How will you shape your KIN experience?

Pathway to Success

School of Kinesiology

Your Kinesiology Undergraduate Society

Most commonly known as the KUS, is YOUR undergraduate society. The KUS works closely with the School of Kinesiology to enhance the student experience. The KUS is made up of a dedicated team of students who work hard to bring you academic, social and career focused activities throughout the year.

Want to get involved? Develop your leadership skills? Get more connected to the School? There are many volunteer opportunities with the KUS ranging from volunteering at events, to coordinator positions. Find out more information at www.kus.ubc.ca and check out clothing, events and other KIN outings!

Kinesiology Transition Program

Part of your transition involves exposure to campus life beyond the walls of a lecture hall – the School encourages each of its students to have a university experience that encompasses Learning & Research, Leadership & Involvement, Wellness, Career & Professional Development, Community Service and Intercultural Understanding. Not just libraries and textbooks. This Kinesiology Transition Program ensures that you are properly equipped with the knowledge, skills and resources to enable you to have a successful and fun university experience.
